Since the start of the year we have been listening to and reading segments of our textbook. For the end of Q4, you will choose your own text. This assessment is designed to demonstrate 2 distinct skill sets:

- A. Approaching a new text
 - developing a general understanding- using words you know
 - guessing from context
 - selecting vocabulary to “unlock” important parts of the text
 - labeling/ titling sections of the text
 - developing a general summary
- B. Detailed comprehension of the text
 - comprehension questions
 - discussion/ reactions
 - translation of small segments OR out loud reading

Requirements:

- a. Vocabulary - No more than 10 new words from the dictionary and at least 2 words guessed from context
- b. Answers to questions @ the bottom of the text
- c. Comprehension questions- General @ least 3 questions and specific @ least 2 questions
- d. Each section labeled (at least 2 sections) - you may use line numbers, words, or send a picture of the titles
- e. General summary
- f. Recorded sections- Not more than 10 minutes (any format)

You should consider: (good ideas but not required)

- a. Using “review” vocabulary as part of your discussion
- And/ Or
- b. Discussing how your new text relates to previous texts

NOTE: We have been doing this process all year long. If you need guidance, go back and look at how we approached new texts throughout the year.
